Cortland

Season Preview

Senior outfielder Mathew Wild.

Last season, the Cortland baseball team extended its streak of consecutive NCAA Div. III playoff appearances to 21. Only three other programs across all divisions own longer streaks, and each is a Div. I program. The University of Miami leads with 41 straight, followed by Florida St. with 36 and Cal State Fullerton with 22. The Red Dragons also captured the SUNYAC regular-season and tournament titles, tied for ninth nationally and finished the season with a 38-11 record. Along the way, 15th-year head coach Joe Brown eclipsed 500 career wins as his career record stands at 517-142-3 entering 2014.

Cortland enters 2014 ranked 10th in the D3baseball.com and 15th in the Collegiate Baseball Newspaper Division III preseason polls. The Red Dragon schedule features 10 games against eight teams that qualified for the NCAA Div. III playoffs last season, as well as an 18-game slate versus challenging conference competition.

For the second straight season, Brown needs to replace a good deal of pitching lost to graduation. Four starters and Cortland's top reliever, who combined for a 22-4 record with four saves, have departed, leaving key roles up for grabs in 2014.

Sophomore Brandon Serio had an outstanding rookie season for the Red Dragons. Serio was named the ECAC Rookie of the Year and the SUNYAC's Clark V. Whited Rookie of the Year. He also was selected to the NCAA Div. III Regional All-Tournament Team. Serio posted a 5-1 record with a 1.21 ERA, 37 strikeouts and 44.2 innings pitched in 11 appearances, including eight starts, in 2013.

Junior Brandon McClain earned second team All-SUNYAC honors as a sophomore after compiling a 5-1 record with a 2.67 ERA, a team-high 59 strikeouts and 57.1 innings in 11 appearances and nine starts. Senior Matt Holling is Cortland's other returning pitcher who earned starts last season. Holling appeared in six games with three starts, posting a 1-0 record with 12 strikeouts in 12.2 innings.

Brown returns seven players who pitched out of the bullpen in 2013. In his first season with the program, senior Cody Petre put up excellent numbers. He led the team with five saves in 14 appearances and posted a 2.18 ERA with 21 strikeouts in 20.2 innings. Senior Steven Kimmelman led the Red Dragons with 17 appearances last season. He posted a 2-0 record with three saves, a 3.00 ERA and fanned 27 batters in 24 innings while holding hitters to a .188 batting average.

Junior Ryan McAlary made 11 relief appearances as a sophomore, posting a 3.48 ERA with seven strikeouts in 10.1 innings. Senior Steve Komanecky pitched in eight games in relief last season. He fanned six batters in nine and a third innings, recorded a 4.66 ERA and held opposing batters to a .222 average. Sophomores Tyler Brien, Travis Laitar and Jake Shelley combined for 17 relief appearances and 22.2 innings pitched as freshmen. Sophomore Ryan Prochna also returns to the staff after being a member of the program in 2013.

The Red Dragons return three senior catchers in 2014. P.J. Rinaldi, who spent the majority of the year in the designated hitter role, earned second team ABCA and D3baseball.com All-Region and first team All-ECAC and All-SUNYAC honors as a junior. He also was selected to the SUNYAC All-Tournament Team. Rinaldi batted .344 with 31 runs, five doubles, two triples, three home runs and 42 RBI and stole 12-of-16 bases. Tim Panetta spent the majority of the time behind the plate last season, starting 25 games at the position and playing in 31 overall. Rosing batted .379 with 34 runs, 12 doubles, two doubles and a team-high 45 RBI. He also stole five bases and recorded a .995 fielding percentage. Coaching Staff

Joe Brown

Joe Brown has led Cortland to a combined 517-142-3 record, 14 NCAA Div. III tournament appearances, seven World Series showings and 12 State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) titles in his first 14 seasons as the Red Dragons' head coach. His winning percentage of .784 prior to the 2013 season was the best of any coach nationally (NCAA Div. I, II or III) with at least 10 years of experience and the third-best all-time among all Div. III coaches with 10 years as a head coach.

In 2013, Brown guided Cortland to a 38-11 record with its 12th SUNYAC title in 14 years. The program reached the 30-win mark for the 13th time in Brown's tenure and extended its streak of NCAA Div. III tournament appearances to 21 straight years, which stands as the longest run in the nation. Cortland tied for ninth nationally after placing second at the NCAA Div. III New York Regional.

In 2012, Brown led the Red Dragons to a 41-9-1 record, a SUNYAC title and a fourth-place national finish. The team posted its fifth 40-win season under Brown. In 2011, Cortland finished 36-10, won the SUNYAC title and tied for ninth nationally after placing second at the NCAA Div. III New York Regional. In 2010, Brown led Cortland to a 40-10-1 record and a second-place national finish at the NCAA Div. III World Series. The national runner-up showing was Cortland's second, both under Brown, with the first coming in 2005.

In 2009, Brown led Cortland to a 31-14 mark. The Red Dragons won the SUNYAC title and qualified for the NCAA Div. III playoffs. In 2008, Brown's team enjoyed a 42-5 record that featured a school-record 38-game winning streak. Cortland won the NCAA New York Regional title and tied for seventh place at the World Series. In 2007, Brown guided Cortland to a 42-7 record and a fourth-place national finish with a 2-2 mark at the World Series. His 2005 squad finished second nationally and posted the most wins in school history with a 43-9-1 record. His 2000 and 2001 squads also won NCAA New York Regional titles and tied for fifth nationally each year. His 2003 and 2006 teams each tied for ninth nationally and his 2002 and 2004 teams both tied for 17th.

In 2000, he had the best season of any Cortland first-year head baseball coach, leading the Red Dragons to a 36-9 record, an NCAA Div. III New York Region title and a tie for fifth place at the World Series. In 2001, his squad finished 34-11, winning a regional title and once again tying for fifth nationally at the World Series. In 2002, Cortland finished the season 31-11 and participated in the NCAA Div. III regional. In 2003, the Red Dragons were 35-11, advanced to the championship game of the NCAA regional and finished tied for ninth nationally. He was also the inaugural winner of the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Upstate New York Div. III Coach of the Year award in 2009. Twenty-two of his players have been chosen as All-Americans, including six who were selected in the professional baseball draft. In all, 17 of Brown's players have advanced to play professionally, including two selections in the 2006 draft, one in 2007 and one in 2009.

Prior to his promotion to head coach, Brown was the top assistant coach and pitching coach for Cortland teams that made seven straight NCAA Div. III tournament appearances from 1993 to 1999 and four World Series showings between 1995 and 1999.

About SUNY Cortland

Located atop one of the rolling hills in central New York's "City of Seven Valleys," the State University of New York College at Cortland was founded in 1868 as the Cortland Normal School, which included among its earliest students inventor and industrialist Elmer A. Sperry of Sperry-Rand Corp. fame.

Over the decades, the campus expanded and in 1941, by an act of legislature and the Board of Regents, the institution officially became a four-year college providing courses leading to the bachelor's degree. In 1948, Cortland was a founding member of the State University of New York.

Today, more than 7,000 students are pursuing degrees within the College's three academic divisions — arts and sciences, professional studies and the school of education. Twenty-eight departments with a faculty of more than 500 offer the SUNY Cortland student body 75 undergraduate majors and 92 undergraduate minors, concentrations and options from which to choose.

The College's main campus covers 191 acres and includes 32 traditional and modern buildings. Sixteen of these structures are residence halls providing on-campus housing for approximately 3,000 students. Cortland also operates its Outdoor Education Center at Raquette Lake in the Adirondacks, the Hoxie Gorge Nature Preserve outside Cortland, and the Brauer Education Center on the Helderberg Escarpment near Albany.

At Cortland, athletics are viewed as having an important role in the educational mission of the College. During the fall, winter and spring seasons, Cortland participates in 25 intercollegiate sports — 14 women's and 11 men's — in an attempt to provide a broad program which meets the needs, interests and abilities of its students.

The Cortland athletic program placed 11th nationally out of approximately 440 colleges and universities in the 2012-13 all-sport Learfield Sports Directors' Cup Division III standings. Cortland is the only New York school and one of only four nationwide to finish in the top 20 each of the last 18 years. Since 1989, the Red Dragons have captured 15 NCAA Division III team titles.

The College offers its student-athletes excellent athletic facilities. The state-of-the-art on-campus stadium features two artificial turf fields. One field seats 6,500 spectators, the other 1,500. The Cortland football, field hockey, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's lacrosse and men's and women's track and field teams are among those who utilize the facility, which the New York Times called "...a new stadium worthy of a major university power."

The Bessie L. Park Physical Education and Recreation Center, opened in 1973, features the Whitney T. Corey Gymnasium with a 3,500 seating capacity; the Olympic-sized Harriet Holsten swimming pool with gallery seating for 1,500; the Alumni Ice Arena, a facility which can accommodate 2,500 spectators; a 500-seat gymnastics arena; racquetball and squash courts; a wrestling room; modern athletic training facilities; and the Francis Woods Fitness Facility.

Nearby Clayton R. Lusk Field House, with its tartan-textured surface, is home for the indoor track teams, varsity practice sessions and recreational activities. Cortland's soccer teams play on Jets Field with its plush, natural-grass surface. T. Fred "Prof" Holloway Field, which has lights for night contests, also is utilized by the soccer teams. Additionally, the College has 22 outdoor tennis courts and two outdoor basketball courts and boasts Robert H. Wallace Field (baseball) and Dragon Field (softball) as part of its 51 acres of athletic fields.
